MARYLAND PROPERTY DISCLOSURE AND DISCLAIMER STATEMENT

Property Address: 117 Twin Eagle Court Frederick, MD 21702
Legal Description: Lot 3064 PL 3 SEC 3B 1462 SQ FT

NOTICE TO SELLER AND PURCHASER

Section 10-702 of the Real Property Article, Annotated Code of Maryland, requires the owner of certain residential real property to furnish to the purchaser either (a) a RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLAIMER STATEMENT stating that the owner is selling the property "as is" and makes no representations or warranties as to the condition of the property or any improvements on the real property, except as otherwise provided in the contract of sale or in a listing of latent defects; or (b) a RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT disclosing defects or other information about the condition of the real property actually known by the owner. Certain transfers of residential property are excluded from this requirement (see the exemptions listed below).

- 10-702. EXEMPTIONS. - The following are specifically excluded from the provisions of Sections 10-702:
1. The initial sale of single family residential property:
 - A. that has never been occupied, or
 - B. for which a certificate of occupancy has been issued within 1 year before the seller and buyer enter into a contract of sale.
 2. A transfer that is exempt from the transfer tax under Subsection 13-207 of the Tax-Property Article, except land installment contracts of sale under Subsection 13-207(11) of the Tax-Property Article and options to purchase real property under Subsection 13-207(12) of the Tax-Property Article;
 3. A sale by a lender, or an affiliate or subsidiary of a lender, that acquired the real property by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure.
 4. A sheriff's sale, tax sale, or sale by foreclosure, partition, or by court appointed trustee;
 5. A transfer by a fiduciary in the course of the administration of a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship, or trust; or
 6. A transfer of single family Residential Real Property to be converted by the buyer into use other than residential use or to be demolished.
 7. A sale of unimproved real property.

Section 10-702 also requires the owner to disclose information about latent defects in the property that the owner has actual knowledge of. The owner must provide this information even if selling the property "as is." "Latent defects" are defined as: Material defects in real property or an improvement to real property that:

- (1) A purchaser would not reasonably be expected to ascertain or observe by a careful visual inspection of the real property; and
- (2) Would pose a direct threat to the health or safety of:
 - (i) the purchaser; or
 - (ii) an occupant of the real property, including a tenant or invitee of the purchaser.

MARYLAND RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

NOTICE TO OWNERS: Complete and sign this statement only if you elect to disclose defects or other information about the condition of the property actually known by you; otherwise, sign the Residential Property Disclaimer Statement. You may wish to obtain professional advice or inspections of the property; however, you are not required to undertake or provide any independent investigation or inspection of the property in order to make the disclosure set forth below. The disclosure is based on your personal knowledge of the condition of the property at the time of the signing of this statement.

NOTICE TO PURCHASERS: The information provided is the representation of the Owners and is based upon the actual knowledge of Owners as of the date noted. Disclosure by the Owners is not a substitute for an inspection by an independent home inspection company, and you may wish to obtain such an inspection. The information contained in this statement is not a warranty by the Owners as to the condition of the property of which the Owners have no knowledge or other conditions of which the Owners have no actual knowledge.

Consent for Dual Agency

(In this form, the word "seller" includes "landlord", "buyer" includes "tenant", and "purchase" or "sale" includes "lease.")

When Dual Agency May Occur

The possibility of dual agency arises when:

- The buyer is interested in a property listed by a real estate company; and
- The seller's agent and the buyer's agent work for that same real estate company.

Before the buyer and seller can proceed to be represented by a dual agent, they must both sign a Consent For Dual Agency. If they have previously signed a Consent For Dual Agency, they must affirm their consent for the sale of the particular property to a particular buyer.

Important Considerations Before Making a Decision About Dual Agency

- A dual agent does not exclusively represent either the seller or buyer and there may be a conflict of interest because the interests of the seller and buyer may be different or adverse.
- As a dual agent, the real estate company does not owe undivided loyalty to either the seller or buyer.

Your Choices Concerning Dual Agency

When a dual agency situation in fact arises, the buyer and seller have the following options:

- 1. Consent in writing to dual agency. If all parties consent in writing, the real estate company (the "dual agent") will assign one real estate agent from the company to represent the seller or landlord (the seller's "intra-company agent") and another agent from the company to represent the buyer or tenant (the buyer's "intra-company agent"). Intra-company agents may provide the same services to their clients as exclusive seller's or buyer's agents, including advising their clients as to price and negotiation strategy.
- 2. Do not consent to dual agency. If either the buyer or the seller, or landlord or tenant, refuses to consent in writing to the dual agency, the real estate company must terminate the agency agreement for that particular property with either the buyer or seller, or both. If the seller's agreement is terminated, the seller must then either represent him or herself or arrange to be represented by an agent from another real estate company. If the buyer's agreement is terminated, the buyer or tenant may choose to enter into a written buyer agency agreement with an agent from a different company. Alternatively, the buyer or tenant may choose not to be represented by an agent from his or her own but simply to receive assistance from the seller's agent, from another agent in that company, or from a cooperating agent from another company.

Duties of a Dual Agent and Intra-Company Agent

Like other agents, dual agents and intra-company agents must keep confidential information about a client's bargaining position or motivations unless the client gives consent to disclose the information. For example, a dual agent or intra-company agent may not tell the other party or the other party's agent, without consent of the client:

- anything the client asks to be kept confidential*,
- that the seller would accept a lower price or other terms,
- that the buyer would accept a higher price or other terms,
- the reasons why a party wants to sell or buy, or
- that a party needs to sell or buy quickly.

* However, like all agents, a dual agent and intra-company agent must disclose any material facts about the property to the other party.

How Dual Agents are Paid

Only the dual agent receives compensation on the sale of a property listed by that company. If a financial bonus is offered to an agent who sells property that is listed with his company, this fact must be disclosed in writing to both the buyer and seller.

I have read the above information, and I understand the terms of the dual agency. I understand that I do not have to consent to a dual agency, and that if I do not consent, there will not be a dual agency. I hereby voluntarily consent to have Long & Foster Real Estate, Inc. act as dual agent for me as the:
(Firm Name)

seller in the sale of the property at: 117 Twin Eagle Court Frederick, MD 21702 buyer in the purchase of any property listed for sale with the above-referenced firm.
